

SPIRITS AND LANDSCAPES

presented by

THE BROKEN ORNAMENT

Opening: 09 Sept. 2010, 19.00

09 September – 26 September 2010

Concert September 17th: Head of Wantastiquet

With work by:

Özlem Altin, Laurent Dupont – Garitte, Yoko Enoki, Maartje Fliervoet, Anouk Kruithof, Paul Labrecque, L.R.J. Martens, Nele Tas, Stijn Van Dorpe and Ada Van Hoorebeke

Spirits and Landscapes is an exhibition without definite form. Its incarnation at the Grimmuseum could be seen as an ephemeral landscape, a brief encounter of autonomous particles.

This total installation is brought together by the Broken Ornament, a little figure with the physical appearance of a cracked cup that wanders between worlds. Its open brainpan and leaking content suggest a direct connection with its surroundings.

An appearance of Spirits and Landscapes was shown earlier this year at the Wiels Project Room in Brussels.
